Information for Lessons 2026

Pricing: $75/hr. Payment accepted via check, cash, Zelle, or Venmo in weekly or monthly installments. Any cancelled lessons that are prepaid will be credited towards future lessons.

Times: 30-min, 45-min, 60-min+ lesson times available

Location: I come to you!

Instruments
Piano: Ideally, your piano will be an acoustic upright or grand in good condition with regular tuning OR an electronic/digital keyboard with 88 keys that are weighted and dynamic (i.e. can play loud or soft) and include a foot pedal; however, we can work with whatever instrument you have for beginner/early intermediate students. The piano should have a bench or chair without arms that is the appropriate height for the piano.
Voice: obviously, your voice! A music stand and mirror access are helpful, but not required. A piano for me is also ideal, but we can still have voice lessons without piano access.

Materials: all required teaching materials are included in your lesson rate, including books, sheet music, activity pages, assignment sheets/books, and apps.

Cancellations: Each student is allowed 10 cancellations at no cost for the calendar year. After the 10th cancellation, you will be charged the full rate for the student's lesson. If possible, please allow at least 24 hours notice for a cancellation, except for illness/emergency.

Non-cancellation days: Holidays are not included in your cancellation count, and you will not be charged for them (see below). Other religious holidays not listed will also not be counted towards your cancellations or incur a charge, as needed (including Easter, Passover, Eid, etc). Spring break and winter break are included in holidays. Please provide me any dates you will need to cancel during breaks. If you're available for lessons during breaks, we can keep lessons as scheduled.

Rescheduling: Reschedules are available as long as we can find a mutual time that works. At least 24 hours notice is preferred, with the exception of illness/emergency.

Virtual lessons: I'm available to teach virtually in the event of household illness (i.e. someone else in your house has COVID, but the student does not and is healthy) or extreme weather events. Lessons would only be held virtually if you agree to them. If I am requesting a virtual lesson and you decline, you will not be charged for the lesson.

Recitals: We will link up with other private teachers and their students in the area to hold at least 1 recital per calendar year. Other performing opportunities may become available! No performing opportunities are required, but are highly encouraged!

Ending lessons: If possible, please provide at least 2 lessons notice before ending lessons. Any remaining balance for prepaid lessons will be refunded after the final lesson.
